“ Sandra and I met at dog shows where we shared the devotion to the Norwegian Elkhound. Neither one of us could imagine running around a ring anymore, we were going to get a motorized carts and race the show grounds. I think we relived our youth through our imaginations. There's not enough space to write or time enough to tell of all our side-splitting plans we imagined. Well, my heart is shattered, just as I am sure her friends, family and son's is. Not long ago, for some reason, Sandra and I discussed our thoughts about "what if". She knew Chris would take this hard, and was so very proud of him. I promised her I would be there for Chris in her absence. She promised me the same for my daughter. So Chris...meet your "other mother". Frightening, isn't it? But let us all pray for courage and strength, knowing Sandra's and God's love will hold us close.

Love ya, girlfriend. Always.

“ Christopher so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. My wife and only knew her on FB and by phone. We worked with her when she took in two Norwegian Elkhounds from Orlando, FL. She will be missed.
