

Sandra Elizabeth Rogers Bowman

March 10, 1951 - March 3, 2015

Sandra "Sandy" E. Rogers Bowman of Converse, TX passed away at the age of 63. On March 3, 2015, 30 years to the day that Sandy brought him into the world, her son held her as she went to meet her Lord. Sandra Elizabeth Rogers was born March 10, 1951 to Hargis Gerald and Mary Lou Rogers, the second of four children. Her older sister Patricia, and younger brothers Leslie and Steven. A graduate of McCollum High School in 1969 she went on to attend San Antonio College. March 3, 1985, Sandy gave birth to her son Brandon Gerald Rogers at the age of 34. It was the single greatest moment of her life. After finally finding her true love, on June 30, 2002 at the age of 52, she was married to Donald Gene Bowman.

Sandy was a reimbursement specialist for Dr. Stephen Cohen for many years and was well known and loved in her professional circle. Sandy enjoyed life, she was usually found with her nephews entertaining them with jokes and stories. She would often start a story with "When I was a little boy..." just to make them laugh. Sandy loved everyone she met, she was a friend that anyone could count on. She would often take in sick, wounded, or stray animals and many people as well. She was the greatest example of what is good in this world.

She is survived by her husband Donald Bowman; son Brandon Gerald Rogers; "Special Girl" and granddaughter Victoria Elizabeth Rogers; grandson Tucker Elliott Rogers; her dear mother Mary Lou Rogers; sister Patricia Barrington; brothers Leslie and Steven Rogers; 5 nephews, 2 aunts and countless cousins. She was preceded in death by her father Hargis Gerald Rogers December 1984.
