“ Sending my condolences to the family and all that loved her. I meet Sandra when our spouses were in the military. She was straight shooter, no nonsense , in your face individual. Even though she and I haven't seen each other in a while and the brief talks on the phone meant a great deal. She always lifted my soul and fed my spirit. Sandra, I love you and I am going to miss you my friend.

“ *For a second you were flying
Like you always wanted to
Now you'll fly forever
In skies of azure blue
We'll see your smile in every ray
Of sunshine after rain
And hear the echo of your laughter
Over all the pain
The world's a little quieter now
The colours have lost their hue
The birds are singing softly
And our hearts are missing you
Each time we see a little cloud
Or a rainbow soaring high
We'll think of you and gently
Wipe a tear from our eye R.i.p from Melissa Horn & family*

“ To Joe, Rita and Pete,

Sandra was a shining star and a leader in her own right. Her tenacity and grit made her a woman of stature with an infinite amount of wisdom that she willingly shared during our many conversations. Although we reconnected only two years ago, Sandra became an instrumental part of my life and source of encouragement. Her love for family and commitment to Joe was inspirational and I whole heartedly will miss her. Our last conversation, a few days before she passed, was filled with hallelujahs, house keeping routines and girl talk and each time we tried to get off the phone we would find something else to celebrate.

As I go back down memory lane, I recall my mother and Sandra having a similar relationship. I clearly remember being a kid visiting Sandra, Rita and Pete with my Mom, (Thomasina), and sister Kim. We would play and they would talk. The relationship they had was definitely one filled with love within a kinship spanning many years. The endearing memories of Sandra Belle (Johnson) Rubin will never be forgotten.

So on behalf of my family to yours, we send our deepest sympathy for your loss of a true gem. Just know that you are all in our prayers and may the peace and grace of the lord be with you.

*Love,
Sonya, Kimberly, Ronnie, Mia and family.*

“ *Cousin Sandra and I go way back. I remember when she came to live with us. She brought so much excitement to our bustling house. Sandra was a teenager attending Junior College. We were so excited to have her with us ,because we could get into her active social life. We sort of grew apart over the years , but the love was still there. Rest In Peace my dear cousin. “ Sandra was my sister-in-law, married to my brother Joe Rubin for 42 years. Sandra was one of the strongest, black women I have ever known. She was a no nonsense, lets get it done person. . She was the person you called when you needed backup. She would definitely come to your aid. From her, I learned, do not be afraid to speak your mind. No one can do it for you. I admired her strength and tenacity.

She and I shared a love for event planning and catering. I loved the baking and decorating, but her passion was preparing the best dishes and presenting that food in the most beautiful way. She and Joe owned their own catering business several years of their lives. Many will remember their seafood and barbeque!

Whenever we came to visit them or seek refuge from a threatening storm on the Gulf coast, she would welcome us with open arms. She opened up her beautiful home, and treated us in the kindest way. All we had to do was respect her way of doing things. She didn't have a problem saying how things were gonna go. That was Sandra Belle. We appreciated her.

One of the best things she did however; was to love and care for my brother all the years they were married. She never wavered in doing what was best for Joe. I will always love her for that.

Rest in peace in God's loving arms, Sandra Belle. You will be missed.

“ My heart aches at this moment as I think about one of my childhood mother's passing. My Spirit is saddened, but my heart is rejoicing that there is no suffering for Mama Sandra. As I turn the pages in my mind and revisit memory lane, it only brings a smile to my face when I bask in her loving memory.

Mama Sandra was a funny person, and she always treated me like a second daughter; I guess it was the Sagittarius in her because we are those types of people. When Rita and I were growing up, she would always include me in things that they were doing.

Mama Sandra exposed me to additional, good eatings. Never in my life would I have ever tried conch salad on my own. However, Mama Sandra convinced me that I would not be disappointed. It was also at her house that I had my first lobster tail. Now don't laugh. It was during that time lobster tails did not look right to me. But again, she was able to convince me to give it a try. I have been eating them ever since.

Mama Sandra knew about some seafood and she definitely knew her way around the kitchen. I was truly blessed when she volunteered to cater my wedding. I didn't even ask. That to me was an extraordinary gift and a blessing. Throughout the year's Mama Sandra always let us know that she was thinking about us and made sure that we would get our Christmas cards as a meer sign that she and Joe were thinking of us.

I will forever miss the sense of humor. The last time I saw Mama Sandra she was worried about how she was dressed, and that her hair was not done appropriately. I told her that I knew who she was and I know how fly she can get and that she did not have to dress up for us because we were family. For all, we cared she could have come and sat with us in her pajamas.

Yes, that is just a snippet of some of the many stories that I could share. Those memories will forever live in the arsenal of my mind.

These words cannot truly express what I am feeling right now. I want you to know that her presence, smile, joy, and wit will forever be missed. Until GOD allows us to see each other again, face to face, Mama Sandra, you rest well and tell my daddy that I said hello.

To my extended family, you know that you are in my prayers, reach out if you need anything. I am truly praying for you and lifting you in the Precious Name of Jesus.
