

Sandra Kay Walker

September 24, 1954 - March 19, 2025

Sandra Kay (Mikes) Walker, a beloved wife, mother and Mamaw, passed away March 19, 2025, at the age of 70 at her home in Adkins, Texas. She was born in Shiner, Texas on September 24, 1954, to Natalie (Kloesel) and Ladik Mikes. She attended Highlands High School and graduated in 1972.

Sandra enjoyed spending most of her time outdoors. She had a deep love for plants and gardening. You could usually find her barefoot in the yard and hands full of dirt (or on the lawnmower).

Family was everything to Sandra, and she cherished the large gatherings where home-cooked food brought everyone together. She knew every birth date, anniversary date and never missed a chance to host any occasion. She was pretty famous for her squash casserole and sweet rice for the grandkids.

Her greatest joy were her grandchildren. Eighteen of them to be exact plus 2 great-grandchildren and another one on the way. She was known as Mamaw, and she never missed an opportunity to spoil them.

Sandra was preceded in death by her son, Joshua Friedrichs and Father, Ladik Mikes.

She is survived by her husband, Frank; mother, Natalie Mikes; son, Daniel

Nichols, Jr., daughter(s), DeAnna (Friedrichs) Rathje (Matt); Natalie (Friedrichs) Leal; son, Chris Friedrichs (Ashlie); step-son, Stephen Walker (Stacey), step-daughter, Debbie Walker. Brother(s), Dennis Mikes, Kenneth Mikes (Laurie), Darryl Mikes (Trish), Doug Mikes; and sister, Becky Elmendorf (Aaron).
