“ Jimmy is my primo. When we were kids, he and his brother Mario (my favorite cousin for life) would visit me and my brother Juan at the Cassiano Courts. They were a force to be reckoned with as they would climb up the porch post and get on the roof of the complex. They would chase me to pull my long hair. Jimmy (and Mario) was always sweet to me. Jimmy's dimples were always the charm in his smile. Mario, Elsa and Roger were also real sweethearts to us, always. Melissa as the last born was also very kind but I did not know her well. Both their parents, Tia Mary and Tio Jimmy, were always good to us, always welcomed us into their home on Valencia Street. Primos, I am so sorry for your loss. I remember all of you. Please know that throughout all these years I have thought often about all of you, wondered about your lives. Most of all about my Tia and Tio. To this day I love them and think of them. Blessings to you all and may your soul heal in the knowledge that Primo Jimmy is fine and safe now. May all of you be safe, healthy and happy. All of you remain in my childhood memories.
Love you all. Annalaura Farias
