

Sara Cavazos Zabihian

March 21, 1961 - November 10, 2018

Sara Cavazos Zabihian, age 57, left this world to go with her Heavenly Father on Saturday, November 10th, 2018. She lived a life of faith with a spirit of giving to all who crossed her path. Sara taught everyone she met how to live unselfishly. She was a faithful servant of The Lord all the days of her life, and an example of a life truly lived. She taught her children how to follow Jesus, and asked them to read the Word of God daily. Sara is survived by her husband Nader Zabihian, her daughters Roxanna and Rebecca, and her son, Joshua. She will be greatly missed by her sisters, Lilia De Sola, Lucha Moya, and Sylvia Lozano, and her brothers, Gonzalo, David and Enrique Cavazos, and numerous nieces and nephews.

SERVICES

A Celebration of Life Service will begin, Monday November 12th, at 4:00 p.m. at the Vada Hagee Chapel at Cornerstone Church. A Visitation and reception will follow the Service at the Church.

“ My dear Nader I just found out about Sara today, It was such a shock to me. It hurts me that I was not there for her service. However, I was in the hospital during November for 3 weeks and never saw or read the paper. My heart goes out to you and your family. I thought of Sara often and many times I said , I have to reach out to her but never did. I loved her she was such a wonderful person & friend.. She was so smart and such a caring person. May God help you get through this difficult time. Your friend, Liz Dorn
