

Sarah Lou Jobson

September 5, 1933 - February 25, 2021

Sarah Lou Jobson, 87, went to be with the Lord on February 25, 2021. She was born on September 5, 1933 in Beaumont, TX. Sarah was a graduate of Thomas Jefferson High School and attended Trinity University. Her passions were church, family, pets, music and wild birds. She combined her love of church and music by serving as the minister of music in her church for many years. Sarah was preceded in death by her husband of 56 years Howard 'Skippy' Jobson. She is survived by her three children Travis Jobson and wife Carmen, Jay Jobson and wife Sylvia, Debbie Tripp and husband Bobby Lee; six grandchildren and eight great grandchildren. Sarah was a very proud and loving wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She loved her family above all else. Private services were held at Mission Burial Park North.

“ Sarah was connected with my family for many years. She was my parents neighbor in Ingram, sang in the choir with me at FUMC Boerne, and was my cousin’s neighbor in the assisted living facility in San Antonio. She always had a smile and loved Skippy and her dogs. She will be missed.

“ I so hated to hear about Sarah's death. She was a good friend and participant in the music ministry at FUMC Boerne after she retired. I'm so grateful that our paths crossed. Prayers for the Jobson family!

“ I send my love to all the Jobson Family. Sarah was a Friend, Neighbor & Co-worker at McCollum High School for many years. I have many good memories of our two families living just a few houses from each other with our growing families.

“ My heartfelt sympathy to the family of Sarah Jobson who had served as choir director at Oxford for many years enriching our worship service an teaching us how music can help heal our soul. I last visited with her at Patriot Heights Retirement Apartments where we both were enjoying being part of a "sing-a-long" . Her little pet dog was with her. She recognized me as a member of Oxford and had sweet memories of having been choir director there. As beautiful and gracious as ever she was contented and happy. She will be missed by her family and friends.
