

Sarah Alta Jane Thwing

September 16, 1910 - July 5, 2004

Sarah Alta Jane Thwing, born September 16, 1910 in Nashville, Arkansas, passed away July 5, 2004. She was 93. Mrs. Thwing was a graduate of Nashville High School. She won two beauty contests, was the First Peach Queen of Nashville, Arkansas, and also won a Charleston Dance Contest. She was very active in the Harlandale PTA and was formerly employed by Gildemeisters Jewelers. Mrs. Thwing was preceded in death by her husband, Harold A. "Hal" Thwing, her daughter, Sarah Anita Maldonado, her son, James Richard Thwing; one sister, Ann Phillips and 4 brothers: Verde, Joe, Bill, Tut, and Dewey Stone. Survivors include one sister, Ethel Bowden; 5 grandchildren: Clint Thwing, Tod Thwing, Kim Sowders, Glorie Georg and Manuel Maldonado; and 9 great-grandchildren.

Tribute Wall

“ Sarah Alta Jane Thwing

J. W. Jim Gilliam W.E.Co. - July 08, 2004 at 12:00 AM