“ She was one of the great Christian mentors from my teen years. She refused to let me hide and was always pushing me to reach beyond what I thought I could do. She showed up one morning out-of-the-blue and loaded me up. She took me to get my driver's license. She was tired of waiting for my parents to do it. I passed!!! That was nearly 50 years ago! Thank you!

“ One of my favorite memories is waiting with your Mom for Santa to come on Christmas Eve one year. Your mom and dad were living in an apartment down on Roosevelt by the golf course, and our folks dropped Bill, Karen, and me off--guess they were "helping" Santa put the finishing touches at home! We listened to the radio broadcast of Santa's trip across the world. I can even picture how we all looked!

Your mom was also an excellent jitterbugger! She taught me a few steps and I was amazed at how much energy it took! Between her and Bobby, we all knew we were loved for who we were ... they were both such great folks. Bobby was one of my favorite cousin-uncles (Muddy raised him and Eddie like they were Mom's brothers, after all ...), so Sarah fit right into that lovely picture.

She was always there with a smile and kind words--especially when Mom and Dad had their accident and when Merrienne was ill--I could always rely on Sarah to talk to and visit with. She'll be greatly missed.

Our condolences to Otho, Myrna, Linda, Mehgin, Sandy, and Robert.

Love from Denis and Cheryl

“ Dear Myrna & Linda,

Our families grew up together on Waldo Street. My Momma always said that your Momma was the first neighbor she met! My Momma was so happy to have a friend who lived just right across the street! The two looked out for each other by sharing sugar and flour in a pinch, providing emotional support and friendship when are Dad's were at work and they kept each other updated on the latest story. Your Momma also kept an eye out on our neighborhood and had the inside scoop as she listened on your Dad's police radio. She kept us all safe! I'm so grateful for the the love and friendship that your family has shared with us over the years. Your Momma was always so sweet and kind.

Seeing an Angel make it to Heaven is always difficult. It's one of the hardest things in life because we just miss and love each other so much. We have to keep talking about those sweet memories and remembering the times we shared. Those are the stories that will keep us strong and remind us of how much a difference your Momma has made in our lives.

Sending deepest condolences and lots of love, DeeDee Griffin Strong, along with my siblings: Rick, Cindy, Nanette and Rusty
