“ Saul, you were (and still are) a light that pierced through the darkness of our troubles/worries. You were the voice of reason that rose above our uncertainty. Many many many talks and guidance through our rough patches on our travel. As selfish as anyone can be. I prayed this was not true.

You are now free with your soul family. Having conversations with your loved ones catching up. Shedding your light over us in small ways proving you are watching over us. We are thankful for the guidance and love you shared with us. Thankful for showering and sharing your ever loving heart. Thank you Saul. We will miss you soooooo dearly. As I would say when leaving the botanica, "don't be a stranger!" Until we meet again- Love Michael, Frances , Brandon and Gilbert.

“ Oh my cuzzy, I have so many memories with you, but I wish we could have created more and grown old together. I will treasure all of our nights drinking, working out, singing, and simply talking about this thing we call life. I will forever cry tears for you, and will love and care for your Charlie until my last days. Love your sister cuzzy💔💔💔
