

Scarlet Ann Brehmer Hoke

June 11, 1971 - June 15, 2009

H O K E

Scarlet Ann Brehmer Hoke, loving wife, mother, daughter, sister, and daughter-in-law, went to be with her heavenly Father on Monday, June 15, 2009. Scarlet was born in San Antonio, Texas, June 11, 1971 and grew up in Boerne, Texas. She graduated from Boerne High School and earned her Business Degree from the University of Texas at San Antonio. Scarlet married the love of her life, Matthew, in April of 2001. Scarlet had the most incredible smile, loving heart, and touched the lives of many with her deep devoted faith in the Lord. She loved her Lord and was very active in her church volunteer work. While living in Boerne, Scarlet attended St. John Lutheran where she taught Sunday school for years. She touched each and every child's heart with genuine love. She also loved her work as a Bible Study Fellowship leader in the Boerne Chapter. After she and her husband moved to San Antonio in 2007, she became a member of Concordia Lutheran Church in San Antonio where she also taught Sunday school and was a Bible Study Fellowship Leader in the San Antonio Chapter at Concordia Lutheran. Scarlet was employed with Huffman Developments where she worked beside Steve Huffman as his executive assistant for 12 years. She loved her job and all the loving employees she worked with each and every day. She is survived by her loving husband, Matthew Hoke, daughters, Piper and Gretchen, and son, Landon. She is also survived by her parents, Lanne and Patsy Brehmer, brother Darren and wife Shannon Brehmer, nieces, Peyton and Abigail Brehmer, all of Boerne, Texas. Mother and father-in-law, Yvonne and John Hoke of San Antonio, Texas, brother-in-law Marshal Hoke of Atlanta, Georgia, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and many wonderful friends.
