Sebastian was born on October 10th, 1969, to Sebastian and Angela Garcia in San Antonio, Texas. A proud native of San Antonio, Sebastian graduated from James Madison High School in 1988. Shortly after Graduation, he answered the call of duty to serve his country by honorably joining the United States Navy and Reserves. He carried a deep and unwavering love for his country. Sebastian had a natural gift for connecting with people, which led to a thriving career in sales. Those who knew him often said he was the best sales representative they had ever encountered. He had a deep passion for fishing and hunting, and he especially cherished two big game hunting trips to Africa, which he shared with is son and mother. The outdoors was his sanctuary, and he treasured every moment spent in nature. Family was the cornerstone of Sebastian's life. Friday nights were especially meaningful as he proudly supported his daughter during her halftime color guard performances—moments that filled him with immense pride. “ Sebastian was so polite and sweet every time he came to our house. I'll never forget seeing him riding in the bed of his dad's pick up truck beside a life size stuffed bear. It was a gift for my daughter! He was so proud. What a thoughtful and handsome boy he was!! Years later he appeared at my doorstep. He said "Remember me? I'm Sebastian." I said you look like a grown man! He smiled and said " I AM a grown man."
RIP, sweet boy.
