“ I will always remember his love for his family. It didn't matter what was going on, he always made time to put his family first. When I first met him, I called him Mr. Ucab, as my relationship with John grew, he would tell me I could call him Dad. I kept calling him Mr. Ucab. On the day of our wedding, at the end of the ceremony, our parents were ask to give us their blessing. After he gave us his blessing, he leaned over and whispered "You can call me Dad now." He smile & waited for me to call him Dad. That day he became my " Dad." I love you Dad, may you rest in peace.

“ I remember when Grandpa would pick me up from school he would ask me were should we go get a snack so we would go get ice cream from DQ I got a ice cream bar and he would get a banana split. I would ask if I could have some and he would look at me for a couple seconds then say ok. After we would go home or to the dollar store. I would get some clown balloons and make a dog. We would go home after and wait for me dad.
