

Selena Diosa Buchanan

January 26, 1996 - August 12, 2015

On August 12, 2015 at 9:15am Selena Diosa Buchanan passed away at the San Antonio Military Medical Center from a long battle with lung disease; she was born on January 26, 1996 in Stockton, Ca. Selena was a beautiful young woman, who graduated from Northern Burlington High School, NJ., with honors. While in high school, Selena was inducted into the National Honor Society, the Spanish Honor Society and was on the varsity cheerleading squad.

Selena's time in this physical life was brief; however, prior to becoming very sick, Selena was able to achieve academic success by realizing her goal of attending UTSA with a Scholarship from the Boys and Girls Club. Her actions were intentionally positive which allowed her to touch many lives as a volunteer. Selena had a knack for public speaking and wanted to pursue many opportunities that would permit her to help people within the community or whomever she was able to reach.

Among her many attributes Selena always wanted to be a better person, someone who was compassionate, accepting and humble. Selena was many things to many people, to her parents she was a loving daughter. Her family remembers Selena as an easy going, diligent person, who always tried to do better than the day before. Selena is unforgettable, her presence is always in our hearts and will remain a deeply loved person. She is survived by her father, Clint Buchanan; mother, Anna Buchanan; brothers, Joel and Kaine Buchanan; sister, Celeste Buchanan and beloved family dogs, Zeus and Zoro.

A special mention to Aaron Verrette and her Grandparents.
