

Selma Guadalupe Tenorio-Valdez

April 21, 1944 - January 1, 2026

Selma Guadalupe Tenorio-Valdez passed away on January 1, 2026. She was born on April 21, 1944, in Amarillo, Texas, and was raised by her loving parents, Blas Tenorio and Esperanza Tenorio.

She is survived by her sister, Anna Maldonado, and her brother, Blas Jr. Tenorio. Selma was a devoted mother to her four sons: Freddie Valdez, and his wife Andrea, with their children Nyah and River; Adrian Valdez, and his wife Carmen, with their children Nadia and Ethan; Christian Andre Valdez, and his wife Dena, with their children Sari and Gavin; and Marco Roman Valdez, and his wife Kathleen Bridget White-Valdez.

Above all else, Selma's greatest love was for her four sons and her family. She was a woman of faith who cherished attending church and enjoyed social gatherings with friends and loved ones. She had a strong work ethic and entrepreneurial spirit, shown through her interest in real estate investments. Selma began her working life at the historic Josephine Theater and later retired from Southwestern Bell, where she dedicated many years of service.

She had an unmatched and uncommon personality, one that couldn't be replicated or forgotten. Her presence brought warmth and authenticity, and she carried herself with a rare blend of strength, spirit, and individuality. Her spirit will leave a lasting impression on those who had the honor of knowing her.

Selma will be remembered for her devotion to family, her faith, and the love she shared with all who knew her.
