“ To Tio Andres, Tia Polin, and all my cousins.
I loved Bucky just as if he were my Brother. I remeber growing up and always thinking how cool he was. He was a good and kind man.
He touched my daughter's heart and each time he saw her, he always told her h

“ I am truly sorry I could not keep my promise I made to you Bucky and be one of your pallbearers. Since I now live in Colorado with my new wife, I do not have the luxury of just thinking of myself. I pray that you can forgive me for failing you at the end.

“ To the Maldonado Family--

I did not know Bucky personally. He prepared business documents for my late husband and my daughter for some years.

Reviewing some of the sentiments sent to you through the Mission Parks site, I see that he was much loved
