

Sharon Kay (Haman) Koch

June 12, 1942 - February 26, 2025

Sharon Kay (Haman) Koch, 82, passed away peacefully, surrounded by loved ones, at her home in the San Antonio, Texas area on Wednesday, February 26, 2025.

Sharon was born on June 12, 1942, in Iowa City, Iowa, the daughter of Vernon and Neva (Figg) Haman. She grew up on a farm in rural Iowa City and graduated from University High School in June 1960. During her childhood she was a member of the local 4-H club. On October 8, 1960, she was united in marriage to Douglas A. Koch at St. Wenceslaus Catholic Church in Iowa City.

She was a military wife who lived at numerous locations throughout the U.S and overseas while Doug was in the Air Force. She spent her early career raising her four children. Later in life she worked at Century 21 real estate offices in San Antonio. She was an avid follower of the San Antonio Spurs and a huge fan of Neil Diamond. She also supported her daughter's high school tennis team activities and loved reading and spending time with her grandchildren. Earlier in life she enjoyed water skiing with her children (even though she could not swim!).

Sharon is preceded in death by her parents, Vernon and Neva Haman, her brother, Robert Haman, and her sister-in-law, Patricia Haman.

She is survived by her husband of 64 years Douglas A. Koch; her children, Jeffrey Koch (Sandra), James Koch (Janette), Christine Malik (Robert) and Theresa Gromko (Eric); grandchildren, Bryan, Carolyn, Catherine (Michael), Kyle (Taylor), Ashley (Josh), Alyssa, Aaron, Connor and Kendyll; great grandchildren, Harper and Holden; her siblings, Nancy Gurney (Lloyd), Gary Haman, David Haman (Sandi) and Steve Haman (Diana); and numerous nieces and nephews.

A private funeral service will be held at the Mission Park Dominion funeral home in San Antonio. Sharon will be interred at the Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery in San Antonio, Texas. In lieu of flowers the family asks that you make contributions to the Alzheimer's Association.
