

Sharon Rose Laipply

February 13, 1943 - January 6, 2022

Sharon Rose Laipply, 78, of San Antonio, Texas, went to be with the Lord on January 6, 2022. She was born in Holmes Township, near Brokensword, Ohio, on February 13, 1943 to the late Wallace E. and Verdie Jeanette Bronson, and lived in Bucyrus for many years. Sharon was a beloved daughter, sister, wife, aunt, mother and grandmother.

She was predeceased by one brother, Timothy R. Hord, and her stepfather, Raymond E. Hord of Bucyrus, Ohio.

Sharon is survived by her three daughters, Aimee (John) Vaughn of Russellville, Arkansas, Cara (Jeff) Black of Stanford, Kentucky, and Heather (Andrew) Cantu of San Antonio, Texas; one sister, Raedene (Dennis) Frost of Brandon, Florida and one brother, Leonard (Jill) Hord of Bucyrus, Ohio, in addition to three precious grandchildren, Andrew, Jonathan and Grace Black, several other cherished family members, and her loving pet cat named Sammie.

As a young woman, Sharon worked as a Licensed Practical Nurse, and after that, as a Medical Transcriptionist for several years. She was a skilled knitter, a cat lover, and the best Christmas Cookie baker anywhere. She was a voracious reader and loved learning new things. Her grandkids were the apple of her eye! Traveling with her military family, she lived in Casablanca as a young girl.

Sadly, Sharon's life was cut short by a devastating diagnosis of Stage 4 cervical cancer. If she could leave a parting message to ladies everywhere, she would want it to be this: don't skip your annual checkup.....it may save your life.

No funeral or graveside service will be held, in respect of Sharon's wishes. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society or the charity of one's choice.
