

Sharon Elizabeth Maddox

March 26, 1954 - August 12, 2020

On August 12th, 2020, God called a beautiful, gentle and loving soul home. While Heaven gained a precious angel, we lost our fiercest protector, a beloved wife, devoted mother and aunt. Sharon Elizabeth Hardy Maddox left this world at the age of 66. Although she left us far too soon, she is rejoicing in heaven with her beloved sister and best friend Tillie Naillon, parents Earl and Betty Hardy and nephew Nicholas Naillon.

Sharon was born on March 26th, 1954 in Pittsburg, Texas. She leaves behind her husband, Mike Maddox, her oldest son Casey Maddox and wife Rebekah, her daughter Brittany Maddox, her youngest son Brady Maddox and wife Elisabeth, her brother in law, Ron Naillon, her nephew Patrick Naillon, her Godsister Susan Minter and her son Dane Minter. She will be fondly remembered by her beloved grandchildren, Cade, Zayli, Zarek, Presley, Teagan, Brooklyn, Bear and Bray, her aunts, Grace French, Bonnie Foster and Francis Yardley as well as numerous cousins and her lifelong best friend Melinda Green Fletcher.

Sharon's focus was her family, her devotion and love were boundless. She had an amazing heart and would go out of her way to ensure her loved ones never went without. She was the matriarch of our family, the glue that kept us together, the keeper of peace and giver of unconditional love. She loved her children and grandchildren beyond measure and would bend over backwards to make them happy. She wanted nothing but the best for those she held dear and was always an encouraging voice of reason, our biggest cheerleader, trusted confidant and she will forever and always be missed.

“ Thinking about you a lot today- its always harder around the holidays for everyone. Danny's Dad just passed away this past weekend- he lived a good life & died in his sleep like Mema. He was 85. I saw this picture & remembered you cutting my bangs. I just read over some of the last texts you sent & realize you were going thru so much! I loved you like you were my own sister & its been so hard on all of us losing you, Tillie, Aunt Betty & Earl, Nick & Ron all so close together. Keep watching over us & we will keep the fond memories alive 🥹 I love you to the moon 🌙 & back.
