“ Sharon was a true, loving, caring friend that would go out of her way to be there for you when you needed. She was a fun, loving gal that also knew when and how to say the right thing at the right time either to a friend, doctor or stranger. Her close friends would agree! Will miss her "Love you". Love you too, my dear friend.

“ We roamed the camp together, climbed trees, rode bikes, and finally became teenagers. I remember one time when we had 8 people in your Volkswagon. I also think about how you welcomed me into your dorm room my freshman year at A&I when I was commuting and just needed a place to hang out. Fun times, crazy memories, and lots of laughs! Rest in peace, Sharon, and enjoy reuniting with all your loved ones!

“ The first time I saw Sharon she came through a hallway door at Ross and nearly knocked me over cause I am so short. We both looked at each other and started laughing. Sharon was a force of fun and laughter. She will be missed. May she RIP.

“ Sharon and I had a friendship lasting 64 years, beginning in 1959, our high school freshman year in Premont, TX. It was important to her to keep in touch with friends who touched her heart through the years. Thank you Sharon for the wonderful memories. I will cherish them as long as I live. Love you and miss you my sweet friend.

“ Over the nearly 50 years of our friendship, years that were filled with laughter, tears, and many great memories that I'll always treasure. Sharon was as tough as she was tender. She could be counted on to follow through on promises and always end a visit with a kiss and an “I love you.” I loved her and will treasure her memory. Betty (Lindamood) Shughrue

*Sharon was a true, loving, caring friend that would go out of her way to be there for you when you needed. Met Sharon decades ago as a fellow Sul Ross Middle School teacher, and we became close friends during our retirement years. She was a fun, loving gal that also knew when and how to say the right thing at the right time whether to a friend, doctor, or stranger. Her close friends would agree! Will miss her "love you" when she would say goodbye. Love you too, my dear friend.
