“ Bonnie, Neice and Family,
We were so sad to hear of your dad's passing. We have such wonderful, sweet memories of your dad, (and your Mom) out at the deer leases, around the campfires with your dad singing and my dad playing the guitar. I always loved hearing your dad sing "Kaw-Liga" and "Fraulein". Do you remember sleeping up in the bunk beds that our dads built in Blanco, up where the daddy long legs were? Or the night at Pleeler's camp house where the mosquitoes were so bad we woke up with red dots on the sheets were they had bit us through the sheets? Or the morning your dad got up and could not get his boot on; he found out that a tarantula had fallen in? Your dad had a wonderful sense of humor and always made you feel so welcome into his home. I remember the beautiful rock work he always had going on at his house, the wonderful bluebonnet pictures he would paint, and the many family Bar-B-Q's we used to have together. (I can still smell your Mom's wonderful pinto beans and Spanish rice cooking). We will treasure our memories of them forever. We love you guys so much! Our hearts and prayers are with you and the family. Our deepest sympathy, Carolyn (King) & Gary Faught and the Elizabeth King Family
