

Sharon Kay Wong

January 25, 1955 - January 26, 2023

Sharon Kay Wong, beloved daughter and sister, passed away Thursday, January 26, 2023 at the age of 68. She was born on January 25, 1955, in San Antonio, Texas, to Texas Wong and Virginia Wong. Sharon graduated from Thomas Jefferson High School and the University of Texas. After working in New York City in the publishing business, she returned to San Antonio where she became the Editor in Chief of San Antonio City Magazine. After retirement, her greatest joy was her love of reading, chatting with friends, traveling, and watching her nieces and nephews grow and flourish. She is remembered for her kindness and generosity. She touched the lives of so many, she will be greatly missed. Sharon is preceded in death by her father. Sharon is survived by her mother Virginia Wong; brother Stephen Wong; and sister Jade Barr.

Visitation will be held on Saturday, March 11, 2023 at 10:00 a.m. with a Memorial Service to begin at 11:00 a.m. Interment to follow at Mission Burial Park South.

“ I just read the notice and sadden to hear of my childhood playmate. We grew up on Brandywine at that time my younger brother would go over and play with Stevie. Its been years since I've seen her but kept up through mutual friends. my deepest condolences to Stevie and Wong family. may she rest in peace, and may the perptual light shine upon her. Love Jeanette Rodriguez (Flores)

“ I just saw Sharon's name in the obituary section of today's paper. When I moved to San Antonio in the late '80's, I was a struggling freelance writer. Sharon gave me regular work at San Antonio Magazine, overseeing the publication with humor, panache, and a touch of rebellion. She brought in a great cast of creatives to edit and publish the magazine, including artist Chuck Ramirez. I'll always be grateful to Sharon for what her mentorship and friendship.
