

Sheila Hodges Keating

May 26, 1933 - August 11, 2014

Sheila Hodges Keating, 81, of Coppell, Texas, went to be with the Lord on Monday August 11, 2014, surrounded by her immediate family. She was born to Luther Goodlett Hodges and Murray Harriet Hodges nee Palmer, in San Antonio on May 26, 1933. She attended Sophie Newcomb and then graduated with a BA from the University of Texas at Austin. She was married to John William Keating for 46 years from 1956 until his death. She retired as an executive secretary for the Director of the UTMB Galveston and previously a teacher in the Clear Lake Independent School District. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Coppell having transferred membership from Alamo Heights, the Kappa Kappa Gamma Society, the National Audubon Society, and the Nature Conservancy. She was preceded in death by her husband and her second son Robert Hodges Keating. She is survived by her sons William McCall Keating and partner, Rashawn; Edward Randall Keating; Paul Redmond Keating and wife, Beverly; six grandchildren, two great grandchildren; and sister Karen Hodges.

Funeral and interment services will be held at Mission Park Funeral Chapel South & Burial Park South at 11:00 am Saturday, August 23, 2014. Donations to The Salvation Army in her name would support her favorite charity.