“ Sherri was a free spirit with a beautiful soul. A big laugh, a big smile and a big heart, you always knew when Sherri was in the room. So many happy times, gonna miss her. Rest well, Sherri.

I worked with Sherri at Southwest she was not only a great person inside and out. She could tell a story better than any one I knew. Her nickname was wild thing because of the things she would say and do or just hilarious. I just found out about her passing and I'm so full of mixed emotions. God has another angel and we have wonderful memories of a sweet, loving, caring, fantastic hilarious person. May you rest in peace Sherri and I'll see you when I get there always in my heart.

My heart is broken. Sheri and I have been dear friends since the 70's. We kept in touch despite never living in the same city. She was such a bright light in this world. I will miss her very much. My love to her family.
