“ *I was the closest to Shirley, I think she was wanting a little sister when I stayed with them.
I have many fond memories of Shirley but I also remember the time she told me to go take a nap. It was summer I suppose and I was pretty stubborn. I wanted to play not take a nap..I think Aunt Mitzie was there with Charlie paying us a visit. Well I laid down, thought maybe I could get by by playing possum..I did take that nap...God Bless You Shirley....I Love You
