

Shirley Elizabeth Coonradt

December 4, 1939 - December 12, 2008

Coonradt

Shirley Elizabeth Coonradt departed from this world to be with her Lord Jesus Christ on December 11, 2008 at the age of 69. Born in San Antonio on December 4, 1939, a loving wife, mother and a blessing to all, and a very artistic person. Her crafts included: stained glass, paints, both in oils and water colors. She loved to sew and make gifts for family and friends. As a children's Sunday school teacher she loved to introduce and guide them to Jesus through simple Bible stories with her art work. Our beloved Shirley will now rest in peace with her family at Mission Burial Park South. Survivors: husband Robert Marvin Coonradt; son: Richard Coonradt and granddaughter Brittany; daughter: Lori and spouse John Oliver; daughter: Cindy and spouse Jeff Keszler and children: Trevor, Ryan, Lindsey and Skyleigh; sister: Barbara and spouse Don Coonradt; nephews: Todd and spouse Teresa Black, children: Brittni and Travis; Scott Coonradt; nieces: Debbie Lingner and children: Mark, Colton and Great nephew Caiden; Shari and spouse Chuck Grant: daughter Nicole; Sherri and spouse Jerry Campbell: children Austin and Megan; cousin: Maurine Butcher and family. Shirley will be dearly missed and forever held in the hearts and minds of those who love her. We will have a family gathering at the home of Barbara Coonradt in San Antonio on Monday, December 15, 2008 following graveside services for family and friends. We extend our thanks to all who kept us in their hearts and prayers.
