

Shirley Louada Oldham

February 16, 1938 - November 13, 2017

Shirley L. Oldham, of Pleasanton Tx, passed away Nov 13, 2017. She was born Feb 16, 1938 to Robert and Effie Thompson and grew up in Gastonia, North Carolina. She was preceded in death by her husband of 57 years, Loel, her parents, and her brother Harold Thompson. Shirley is survived by her brother, Rex Thompson, her son Robert Oldham, her daughter Melissa Ball, her six grandchildren, and her eight great grandchildren. Shirley was a devoted daughter, wife, mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and aunt. Soon after moving to Texas from North Carolina, she made a point of ensuring each of her nieces and nephews got a gift at Christmas – for some, the only gift they would receive. She was an avid bowler, country western dancer and Spurs fan. Later in life, she and her husband Loel spent their retirement travelling around the world. She would often counsel “there is no such thing as a bad beach.” She never met a stranger; and had a gift for making people feel like she’d known them for a lifetime. Visitation will be held on Friday evening from 6:00-9:00PM, November 24, at Mission Park South Funeral Home in San Antonio Texas. Memorial service will be held on Saturday, November 25, at 11:00 – also at Mission Park South.

“ Once in a while, you know, without a doubt, God put someone in your path. On October 17, He put Shirley Oldham in my path at The Heights in Pleasanton, Texas. I was at one of the lowest parts of my life having just admitted my 90 year old mother there. Shirley took my hand, smiled, and told me it would be ok and I knew right then, it would be. She spoke with me daily and told me stories of her life/family and we laughed and we cried. Little did I know, our days of sweet visits would end all too soon. This kind, sweet lady changed my way of thinking and changed my life, really. She also took my mother under her wing and ate meals with her daily. I miss her, and I also thank God for allowing me to have known this wonderful lady. See you soon, Shirley Oldham....He's coming soon. Love you, Mary Howard
