Shirley Charlene (Crider) Smith

August 10th, 1936 - November 3rd, 2024

Shirley Charlene (Crider) Smith of San Antonio, Texas, peacefully passed away by her family's side on November 3rd, 2024 at the age of 88 years old. Shirley was born on August 10th, 1936 to Claude and Geneva Crider. Shirley was preceded in death by her husband Robert "Bobby" W. Smith, brothers Red and Vernon Crider, children; Micheal Abe, Eugene Smith, Shirley Quinn, and her grandson Travis Johnson. She is survived by her sister Linda Lock, children; Robert and Paul Smith, Peggy Johnson, Cindy Ruhe, 14 grandchildren, 18 great grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandchildren.

Shirley worked at Terrell Wells Middle School for 25 years as a food service worker and later manager. Shirley loved her country music, specifically Kieth Urban and gambling at the slot machines with her best friend Frieda. Shirley loved spending time with her family especially during the holidays, supervising the food prep that went into the family parties making sure the deviled eggs, potato salad and noodle salad were all up to her standards. Shirley will always be remembered as a caring and supportive sister, wife, mother, grandmother, and friend. Shirley will greatly be missed as she was the matriarch and glue that held the family together.
