

Sibyl Jean Wilhelm

October 26, 1930 - August 16, 2005

On August 16 our mother went home. Through our pain we rejoice that she is no longer weak, but standing strong beside her Savior and those awaiting her arrival. Sibyl Eugenia “Jean” Barnett Wilhelm was born on October 26, 1930 to Emmett and Edna Barnett in Llano, Texas. At 6 months she joined the rest of the family at their dairy farm in San Antonio, Texas. Jean was a member of the Northeast Baptist Church and lived her faith daily. Not only did she share her faith with her own children, but did so many others over the 30 years “Miss Jean” taught Sunday School. Jean was preceded in death by her husband Zelmer Ted Wilhelm, by her parents, and all seven of her brothers and sisters. She is survived by her sons, William Wayne Willis and his wife Dian of Abilene, TX. and Don E. Willis and wife Mercy of San Antonio, TX,; daughter Deborah Deel and her husband Michael of San Antonio, TX.; by her grandchildren Tyler and Ted Willis, Desiree and Madison Willis, and Sean Deel; sister-in-law Harriet Barnett; and many nieces and nephews so dear to her heart.

We Know death is not the end, but rather the beginning of eternal life. Our mother leaves her weakened body behind so her soul can soar and become what the Father designed us to be, living in joy with Him and His Son, free of all weakness and heartache.

“ She was always someone I looked up to, and admired. As a child she taught my sister and I to dial time at Frost Bank. As young teenagers she took us to see Elvis Presley. In later years she did so much for my parents, always being there for them. Words
