Sidney Ken Ng, beloved father, son, and brother, passed away Friday, March 25, 2011 at the age of 60. He was born on January 25, 1951, in San Antonio, Texas, to James Sheng Ng and Lau Ngan King Ng. “ Sidney was a Great Caring Man, I remember him from La Fama Grocery Store on Nueces and San Fernando St. in San Antonio, Tx, Sidney would always see me staring at the video games and he would come and start playing the games (sometimes I did not have money) and he would entertain me by playing games, he owned the games he had the keys to add free credits and would add a lot of credits then play a few games and let me play the rest. It's funny how you don't forget kind acts like that from someone you don't know that well, but we still had our small moments that made a big difference in my life.

Thanks Sidney, Heaven is surely a much better place with you there! Never got to thank you for your kindness, so I will do it here, thank you very much for your precious time Sidney, it really did make a huge impact and difference in my life. Love ya Brother!

Respectfully,

Mark
