

Sierra Cheyenne Escobar

August 8, 1995 - October 21, 2013

ESCOBAR

Sierra Cheyenne Escobar, born on August 8, 1995 in San Antonio, TX, went to be with the Lord on October 21, 2013. Sierra was a beautiful young woman blessed with many many talents. She was an aspiring artist, musician and vocalist and had big dreams of being a Singer/Songwriter. She was planning to pursue her passion for music at North Texas University. She was eclectic to say the least. She always wanted to do the oposite of the norm and didnt mind standing out in a crowd. She was proud to be different and stayed strong in her values and beliefs. She believed in the Lord and trusted in him. She was a part of the Teen ACTS community at St. Luke's Catholic Church. She loved all animals, especially her tortise "Igor". She volunteered her time at the local animal shelter.

Sierra touched many, many, lives during time she was with us and although, her journey here on earth ended sooner than most, she has reached everyone's desired final destination, God's Kingdom in Heaven. Ultimately, thats what we all should be living for during our time on here earth.

She is survived by her parents, Emilio Escobar Mirtha and Amie Luna Steven Ely; grandparents, Ramiro and Stephanie Escobar, Esther Escobar, Margaret Blakey Kawana, Rick and Mary Alice Luna; sister, Ariana Ely; brothers, Alexander Escobar, Elijah Luna, Zavier Ely and Michael Escobar.
