“ You will be greatly missed Mr. Casillas. I want to thank you for having such a huge welcoming heart and accepting Theresa and I as family also. We shared several great stories but my favorite was asking you on you and your wife's 50th anniversary. How does one stay married for 50'years ? Your answer: " I always said Yes!" We laughed so hard. You had many great stories you shared with me. I appreciated them all. Thanks for those memories that I will always cherish! Ben & Theresa Brooker

“ Mr. Casillas, You were always a simple, kind man. I never knew a time where you were angry or upset but instead looked forward to spending all your time with your beloved wife and all your family. Thank you for always being kind to me. I will miss sneaking you empanadas. I am glad you are finally with Mrs. Casillas, having late night coffee and taking long drives up in heaven. Rest in Peace. Strength and prayers to all the Casias family.

“ Mr. C for the time I was in your family, I remember how sweet and caring you were to both Freddy and Crystal. You always greeted them with that warm smile of yours and an open hug. Over the years you and Mrs. C took care of the kids for us and who would have known at the end of your lives, Crystal would be repaying the favor by being your provider and helping when she could. She really built a closer bond with you both again. She truly cherished those moments. You truly were loved by all for all the good you did. Our little bit (Jaelynn) and Jaslynn will miss the visits with you and Freddy and Crystal will miss you too. You were a great grandpa to them and a good father in law to me. Thank you for your love, support and your service.

To Liz, Fred, Chris and Bobby, our hearts break for you and we send you our deepest condolences, Your dad was such a sweet heart and I am happy I got to say my good byes to him, May he rest in peace and continue to be that angel he has always been. To all the other grandkids and great grandkids, cherish those memories you made with your grandpa and talk about him among each other and share the funny stories you remember, they will help you get thru the loss. “ Mr. C.,
I have some excellent memories as a young teenager playing basketball 🏀 on a board nailed to a tree with a hoop without a net and playing one-on-one (unless the boys came out) and you making some nice shots. These memories bring a source of joy to my memory. May our Lord welcome you to his Golden Basketball Court. My sincere condolences to the Casias and extended families and please accept our heartfelt sympathy during this difficult time. Have no doubt your legacy will live on in all those you left behind. With respect, Vince & Liza Ortiz.
