“ My Lita meant the world to me and my kids. We think of you daily and miss you dearly. Sometimes we take for granted the people who are in our lives the longest never realizing one day they will be gone. I am at that place. You leaving was not part of my plan. I just assumed you'd always be around. Although I saw you daily, I now regret not spending more time with you doing things you loved. Our life had become busy with the kids sports and school stuff that I rarely just stopped to visit. I love you Lita!!! You can now Rest In Peace and join Lito in heaven. Wait for me....
