

Sista Dorothy Saucedo

January 16, 1931 - May 28, 2026

Sista Dorothy Saucedo was born on January 16, 1931, in San Antonio, Texas, and passed away peacefully surrounded by the love of her family. She will be remembered as a devoted mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother whose life was centered on faith, family, and simple joys.

She had a special gift for creating rosaries, a reflection of her deep spirituality and the care she poured into everything she made. She cherished time spent with her family and grandchildren, whether it was sharing stories, taking walks together or simply enjoying each other's presence. Her love for the arts led her to enjoy many memorable moments attending the theater, and her home was filled with a beautiful collection of angels that brought her comfort and joy.

She found peace in nature through bird watching and treasured the quiet moments it brought. She was also a devoted fan of the San Antonio Spurs, proudly cheering on her team and sharing that excitement with those around her.

She is preceded in death by her loving husband, Sam D. Saucedo, Jr. and seven brothers.
