

Socorro Delgado

August 12, 1920 - March 26, 2021

Mrs. Socorro Delgado went to be with the Lord on Friday, March 26, 2021 at the wonderful age of 100 years. She is preceded by her loving husband, Adolph Delgado, parents, Francisca and Jesus Cuellar, her children, Rebecca Burch and Adolph Delgado, Jr., and grandson, Frank Adolph Valdez. She is survived by her daughter, Clara Trevino (Richard), daughter-in-law, Maria Delgado, granddaughters, Margo Burkholder, Laura Valdez, Cynthia Calderon, Jennifer Schultes, Cristina Villarreal and Angela Hirsch, grandson, Adam Delgado, as well as 12 great grandchildren, and 7 great-great grandchildren.

As a young woman she took her family to Washington and served our country during WWII as a Rosy the Riveter. She was a career woman, managing Joan Bari' at Northstar Mall for many years, earning countless sales and service awards. Never one to sit still, she spent much of her retirement taking care of children at Concordia Lutheran Church.

Socorro, or Grandma Cory as she was called, set the example of a strong, independent woman. She was smart, as feisty as they come, loved to drink coke (w/no ice), tell you "she knew what she was talking about" (and she usually did), would give you a dollar, but tell you not wipe your butt with it (we usually did), and loved to sing loud. She was our matriarch and loved dearly. Her fashion sense, strength, wit, and presence is missed by all.

A special thank you to Martha, Russel, and the entire nursing and administrative staff at Wurzbach Senior Rehab Center. You took care of her when we couldn't and we are forever grateful.
