“ My condolences to all the Ferdin Family.
My fondest childhood memory of Sofie was how soft spoken and quiet she was. Sofie and my mother were neighbors for a short time, but good friends for many decades. Always finding the time to stay in touch.
I remember our moms seating outside on their lawn chairs, in the evenings having their lady talks. While we sat nearby on the grass talking and laughing with and at each other. Sofie and mom had many things in common, but their love for their children; is what I remember the most.
I'd like to think that Sofie and mom are in heaven, once again having their lady talks.
May God bless each of you and comfort you with love and strength.
Sincere condolences, Mary "Esther" (Veloz) Villar
