“ As I sit down to write these words, my heart is heavy with the pain of saying goodbye. You were the embodiment of love, strength, and warmth. Your presence in our lives has left an indelible mark, and I feel grateful to have been blessed with you as my grandma.

Now, as you embark on the next part of your journey, I find solace in the belief that you are reunited with some of your loved ones. I imagine a place where love knows no bounds, and the bonds of family are eternal. It brings me comfort to picture you in their company, sharing stories and laughter once again.

Rest in peace, Grandma. May your soul find peace in the company of our beloved family members who have gone before you.

Love,
Lynnette Polanco

“ As I write these words, it's tough to say goodbye. You were the epitome of love, strength, and warmth, leaving an enduring impact on our lives. I'm grateful to have had you as my grandma.

Now, as you embark on the next part of your journey, I find comfort in thinking that you're reunited with some of your loved ones. I imagine a place where love has no limits, and family ties last forever. The idea of you in their company, sharing stories and laughter once more, brings a sense of peace.

Rest easy, Grandma. May your soul find calm in the presence of our beloved family members who came before you.

*Love,

“ As I reflect here today to bid farewell to a remarkable woman, mother, mother in law Soledad, grandmother and great grandmother let us reflect on the profound impact she had on our lives. Her kindness, strength, and enduring love will forever be etched in our hearts. During this difficult time, may we find solace in the beautiful memories we shared with her and draw strength from the love and support we offer one another.

In honoring Soledad, let us celebrate the legacy of a life well-lived and the indelible mark she leaves on each of us. May her soul rest in peace, and may we find comfort in the cherished moments we hold dear.

*With deepest sympathy,
Marvin and Irene Gomez*
