My deepest condolences to her family and my prayer for them all. I will miss her but I will never forget her 😞*

“ My condolences to the family. Sonia was a great friend and will be missed. We grew up together in Illinois and then we would bump into each other at the club in San Antonio... She was always so happy and had a laugh that was contagious. I will miss you!

“ I was blessed to have met Sonia in middle school. Our friendship grew throughout high school and have been great friends ever since. She was always a happy go lucky person and had a heart of gold! Her laughter was contagious! She took me to our first concert back in the day and we had a blast! We always enjoyed talking about our mutual hometown of Illinois. One of the many things I will miss this year is sharing our back to back February birthdays together. Happy Birthday dear friend on Feb. 03 💜

Sonia was one of my best friends that I met in school. We would go out to Tejano clubs. Sonia would come to my mom's home or I would go over to see her at her grandparents home. Sonia was more than a friend...she was part of our family. My entire family lived Sonia and my mom wanted her to marry one of my brothers. She did not care which one, she just wanted her in the family. Sonia was always smiling and always brightened your days with her amazing personality and great sense of humor. The Hernandez family will forever love you and will never forget you!!! Heaven has gained a BEAUTIFUL ANGEL!!! RIP my friend.
