

Sonora Lee Hartley

October 3, 1947 - January 21, 2019

Sonora Lee Hartley, age 71, passed away on Monday, January 21, 2019 in the circle of her three loving children and dear friends. She was the only child born to Margaret and Louis Hartley in San Antonio, Texas. Sonora will be remembered as a strong, independent woman, a champion of what's just, loving mother and Granny. Sonora spent much of her professional career as a single mother of three and will leave a legacy of fairness for women in all business career fields. Sonora was a pillar of leadership and a shining star in the Business Professional Women's clubs for over 30 years and served as President of the Southeast BPW, founding member and President of Mission City BPW, BPW/Texas District 2 Director, and BPW/Texas Development Program Chair.

In 1998, Sonora was the recipient of San Antonio Business Journal's Profiles in Leadership award recognizing her contributions to the San Antonio community. She and Leo enjoyed taking adventure trips with the grandkids and supporting their various sports and interests before retiring in Uvalde.

Sonora made it a point to keep family close and enjoyed many cherished years with her kids, grandkids, and friends at King William Fair and New Year's Eve celebrations. Sonora is preceded in death by her parents, Margaret and Louis Hartley. She is survived by her husband Leo Little, sons, Thomas Hartley (wife Natalie Hartley), Edward Hopkin, (wife Sonja Hopkin) daughter, Louisa Machen, (husband Dan Machen), and grandchildren Brett Hopkin, Kailyn

Hartley, Vance Hopkin, Cade Machen, and Cale Machen. A celebration of life will be held Sunday, January 27, 2019 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels Stone Oak, 23755 US- 281 San Antonio, TX 78258 210-576-3377. Visitation at 1:00 p.m. and service at 2:00 p.m.
