

Stephen Casanova

November 29, 1949 - January 22, 2009

Doctor Stephen Casanova was called home by the Lord on January 22, 2009 at the age of 59. Born and raised in San Antonio, Texas, he was a professor at the St. Cloud State University, a descendant of the Canary Island and an elder of Tap Pilam Nation. Born and raised in San Antonio he was preceded in death by his father Amos and his brother Amos Fredrick. He will be missed by his mother Mary Espiritu, sister Linda, sons Steve and Amado, nieces Stephanie, Karen and nephew Kevin.

Tribute Wall

RG

“ I knew Esteban briefly during the Chicano Movement. He was kind and intelligent. Rest in peace bro. So proud of what you went on to do for the indigenous people. Prayers to family and offspring of Esteban's.

rose gallagher - July 20, 2012 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ Even though I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Prof. Casanova, I have learned from him through his lovely sister Linda. I've also read with admiration about his work as a professor and activist. I send my deep sympathy to his family and particularly

Jesus A. Hernandez-Herrera - February 23, 2009 at 12:00 AM

JH

“ Even though I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Prof. Casanova, I have learned of him through his lovely sister Linda. I've also read with admiration about his work as a professor and activist. I send my deep sympathy to his family and particularly to

Jesus A. Hernandez-Herrera - February 23, 2009 at 12:00 AM

BF

“ All of our love and deep condolences to the Casanova family and particularly to our beloved friend Linda.

Patricia, Desiree, and Michelle Barbeyto; and Michael Opland.

Barbeyto Family - February 23, 2009 at 12:00 AM

RF

“ Please accept my prayers for your son and brother Dr. Stephen Casanova. Also a belated prayer for Federico. If I remember correctly he and I took a bus ride downtown to buy some marbles when we were seven years.

Ramiro Martinez & Family - January 31, 2009 at 12:00 AM