Following positions at Serco-North America as a Director, and VETS, INC. as Senior Vice-President of Corporate Development, he spent the past three years with Xerox as Vice-President of Business Development and Capture. His keen mind, quick with, inherent charisma, communication skills and business acumen led him to excel throughout his career. He also enjoyed multiple entrepreneurial pursuits. Steve married his sweetheart Sabrina Ranalli in 1997. They were blessed with two exceptional children, Makenzi and Grayson. His family brought him the greatest joy in life. He marveled at his children's academic, musical and sports talents; proudly attending their piano recitals and sporting events. He particularly enjoyed being his daughter's tennis practice partner and was deeply involved with his son's school and city league basketball activities. Steve enjoyed traveling with family, recently returning from a Mediterranean pilgrimage where he was particularly moved during the visit to Mary's house in Ephesus and while passing through the Holy Doors at the Vatican. He was an active parishioner at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Catholic Church. He is preceded in death by his grandparents, John A. Steve will be remembered for his good and generous heart, strong sense of family, zest for life and infectious smile Who could resist that trademark dimple or twinkle in his eye? He was always quick to offer assistance when needed and selflessly served as a mentor to others. One of his earliest and most rewarding community services was as a volunteer working with underprivileged children in a robotic development competition. Although gone too soon, Steve lives on in the hearts and minds of those who were privileged to know and love him. We draw comfort in knowing that he is at peace in the love, light and grace of God's presence.
