“ I worked in Stephen's home for years. Stephen enjoyed watching the Dallas Cowboys, Texas Longhorns and Oklahoma Sooners as well as the San Antonio Spurs. If I needed times and dates of any of these teams, Stephen knew all the details. Stephen was caring, loving, and very smart despite his disability. Stephen succeeded in his special way, Stephen was a funny character. I would say "Stephen, its time for shower and meds" and his reply would be "OK old lady" or "OK shorty!" That was so funny to me.

Through Stephen, I met the beautiful McGaffigan family.

I will forever miss my friend Stephen.

“ My deepest condolences. I worked at R&K in 2001 and Steve was my favorite. I enjoyed being with him for my five years. We always watched sports together and loved the fact he loved the spurs, cowboys, and longhorns. I left the company but came back to R&K in 2016 and there was Steve again at the same house I managed before. We picked up our friendship right where we left off. I had the chance to work with Steve again and enjoyed every minute of it. I always went above and beyond for him and would personally take him to all his physical therapy appointments even though I had staff that would do it for me. My second stay at the company only lasted a year but he was the last person I said bye too. I know I wasn't suppose to show favoritism but couldn't help it with Steve. I miss him and his parents Bernard and Flo. The nicest people. He is in a better place now but will be in my prayers and be remembered whenever I watch a game of our favorite teams.
