

Steven Michael Boylson

February 14, 1985 - October 3, 2021

On October 3rd, 2021, Steven Michael Boylson passed away during a tragic car accident in Austin, Texas. He was 36. While he lost his life far too soon, his spirit lives on through the countless memories of him.

Steven had the biggest heart, and the fierceness in his protective instincts was comparable to none. He took his responsibility as the eldest sibling seriously and had a tremendous amount of love for his family. His siblings have spent countless hours reflecting on his unique ability to infuse joy in all situations, draw out the deepest belly laughs, and how every gathering was just a bit more fun because he was there. He drew people in with his unique ability to connect, whether he met you minutes or years ago, and Steven will be remembered for his approachable, comforting personality. Simply put, the world will never be the same without his presence in it.

Steven leaves behind his father, Mike Boylson, mother, Sandy Boylson, and siblings, Matt & Erin (Boylson) VanMarter, Zack & Nicole (Carrasco) Boylson, Luke Boylson & Maggie Larson, and Michaela Boylson. In addition, Uncle Steven's funny jokes live on through Eli VanMarter (8), Audrey VanMarter (6), Tommy Boylson (4), Emma Boylson (2), and Sebastian Boylson (1).

Steven's family is making his dream to spend forever in the Texas Hill Country come true. He will be laid to rest in San Antonio, TX, and his family invites all who knew and loved him to join in celebrating his life and mourning his loss.

“ Steven was one of the most dynamic people I've ever met. Memories of him will always bring a smile to my face. I was devastated to hear of his passing. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord.

“ Our nephew Steven was a man's man and a lady's man (appropriately born on Valentines Day!). Our six kids looked up to him as an older brother with the boys wanting to be like him. We have so many great memories of Steven, especially when he was the "captain of the ship" when we would visit him and family at the cabin on the lake. It's so true when everyone says that Steven made everyone feel so special... definitely a gift from God!

And let perpetual light shine upon him.

May he rest in peace.

Amen

May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace!

Amen

“ I dated Steven and loved him SO very much 9 years ago. There was never a dull moment with him. He truly made me feel so special. Through the years I would randomly think of him and his family because the love they shared and their closeness was inspirational. I remember him wanting to get both of our families together (which we did at Shogun hibachi/sushi) very quickly into our relationship because he just “knew I was the one” fast forward and that ended up not being the case. However, I just adored him and the love he had for his family, and me. He dropped everything for me when I sad, took me to the midnight premiere of the hunger games, and just always revolved almost every single date around not only mine, but his family. I see why, they are amazing and have still left such an impact on my life with the love they showed me and how much they welcomed me with open arms. I have too many great memories of Steven to share, from leaving work and sitting with him at the front of DBAT, attending Luke’s baseball games; hanging out with MK, Easter eggs with the Boylson, going to celebrate his 28th birthday in downtown Dallas with my brother, bringing my baby cousin to his parents house for a pool day which lead to an intense family game of basketball in the driveway, but my favorite memory of all is when Steven and I talked about our faith. He loved Jesus. I have found peace remembering our conversations and knowing this. I know he is wrapped in Jesus’s arms, looking down on those he loved and in the best place imaginable with our Lord. Steven was special. I thank God he put him in my life to love and I take comfort knowing he is in a better place. Sending so much love, hugs, and prayers to the Boylson family and all of those are affected by his loss.
