“ I remember sitting on Aunt Hazel's porch with her and Steven while they smoked, drank Diet Coke and told the funniest stories. I will never forget the kindness Aunt Hazel and Steven showed me that summer I stayed with them. Sending lots of love to Steven's siblings during this great loss.- Ruthie

“ I remember Steven as a really funny guy with a big heart. I could sense the great love he had for his mother. He was very kind to his Aunt Hilda (my mom) as well. He gave her some his beautiful African Violets to have. He was so helpful to our family when Hilda passed. He made tons of lasagna so we would have a hot meal. Such a big heart. I'm sure he will be missed.
