

Steven Ryan Tschappatt

January 16, 1984 - September 3, 2017

Steven Ryan Tschappatt, beloved son, brother, father, cousin, and lifelong Texan, passed away on September 3, 2017 at the age of 33. Born in San Antonio, Texas on January 16, 1984 to Clarence and Janetta Tschappatt, Steven spent his entire life in the San Antonio area where his family's roots can be traced back to the Battle of the Alamo. Steven, known as 'Steve-o' to many of his friends, graduated from James Madison High School in 2002 and later went on to graduate from Kaplan University.

Steven was the kind of guy who knew exactly how to make everyone laugh, including himself. Despite his health problems in recent years, Steven always kept up a cheerful attitude and found humor in the most mundane moments of life. His laugh was contagious, even to those who weren't in on the joke! He was kind, gentle, fun-loving, accepting, non-judgmental, and generous. Steven would empty his wallet and give the shirt off his back to a loved one in need. He was always willing to lend an ear and share whatever he had with whoever needed it. His greatest goal in life was to follow in his father's footsteps and be the kind of man who everyone loved, who had a joke and a hug in times of sorrow and a supportive and encouraging spirit in times of joy. He loved to dance, play pool, go on car rides while listening to his favorite country tunes, camp at Chalks Bluff, and most of all, spend time with his 9-year old son, Aiden. He brought laughter and joy to everyone who had the honor of knowing him and the hole his absence now leaves will be felt by friends and family for many years to come.

Steven was preceded in death by many close loved ones including his mother, Janetta, and father, Clarence; his grandfather, Douglas Madden; and his grandmothers Mary "Mamie" Sosa and Vangie Tschappatt. He is survived by his sister, Jennifer Wilson, and brother-in-law, Steve Wilson; his son, Aiden; his nieces, Elizabeth, Clara, and Anastasia; his nephew, Ian; his grandmother, Willie Madden; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins who loved and adored him beyond measure. He is also survived by countless friends who supported him through life's ups and downs and will miss him tremendously.

“ Steven had a heart of gold and an ability to make everyone laugh especially when they needed it the most. He wowed us all by his Donald Duck impersonations that never got old and we would all request that he do them just to make us smile. He is the image of a true friend and what a true friend should be and he was just that so effortlessly. He always took out time regularly to send me messages to see how I was doing after my surgery last year even though he had all his own struggles. Steven you were loved by many and still loved today. I will never forget you and I will forever miss you.
