

Stuart Lee Cavender

December 27, 1958 - February 16, 2021

Stuart Lee Cavender passed away on February 16, 2021. A native, and life-long resident, of San Antonio, Stuart attended Alamo Heights schools and the University of Texas at Austin. He married his college sweetheart and the love of his life, Allyson Patton of Nacogdoches, Texas, on the opening day of deer season in 1981; as testimony to how much he was loved, not a single friend missed the wedding, despite the choice of date.

Stuart joined the family automobile business in 1981 and partnered with his father and older brothers in building the business their grandfather founded in 1939. Stuart was a friend to everyone and treated everyone he met with respect and kindness. Stuart loved people and people loved Stuart. When the family decided to buy the Chevrolet store in Boerne, Stuart volunteered to take on the task of building relationships in a new community. He and the new dealership thrived because of his genuine and embracing nature. He served on the Chevrolet National Dealer Council and was a well-respected dealer in the region.

Stuart loved his family and friends and made everyone feel as though they were the most important person in the room. Stuart enjoyed nothing more than spending time (generally laughing) with Allyson and their three children, of whom he was so proud. He loved being together and making memories with them at the lake, their house in Leakey, and on the back porch of their home. He enjoyed the outdoors and was as comfortable on the golf course as he was on a South Texas hunt. Stuart was a devoted Episcopalian and was a lifelong member of St. Mark's Episcopal Church.

Stuart was a member of the Argyle, the San Antonio Country Club, Club Giraud, the Texas Cavaliers, the Order of the Alamo, the San Antonio German Club, and the Merry Knights of King William.

He was preceded in death by his father, William Byrd Cavender. Stuart is survived by his mother, Betty Menefee Cavender; his loving wife of 39 years, Allyson Patton Cavender; daughters, Blake and Southy; son Lee and wife Catriona and granddaughter, Clara; his brothers Billy Cavender and wife Katie, Bobby Cavender and wife Stephanie; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Due to the circumstances surrounding Covid-19, a private memorial service will be held for family members on Tuesday, February 23, 2021. The Rev. Elizabeth Knowlton will officiate at the memorial and those who wish to view a recording of the services may do so through Stuart Cavender's tribute page at www.missionparks.com.

If you wish to honor Stuart's memory, please consider a gift to St. Mark's Episcopal Church or a charity of your choice.

“ First off I'd like to start off by sending my condolences to Allison and their children as well as Stuart's mom Betty his brothers Bobby and Billy and all the other Cavender family!

I met Stuart in kind of unusual way! He had a KitchenAid icemaker that always had problems and I was an appliance tech and own my own company and Stuart used to call me to come over there and get that thing working. He used to always say can't have a cold drink if you ain't got no damn ice! So I would get it going again and again.....well while it was in the cleaning cycle I would go and sit on the brick wall out on the drive way and smoke a cigarette and he would come out and shoot the bull with me we talked about everything from his white convertible Chevelle to my childhood hobby of collecting hot wheels! He use to crack me up when would I would show him pics of my 60 and 70 hot wheels and he would have that kid look in his eyes and say I remember that car I think I had one of those lol I told him if you grew up in the 60-70 era what kid didn't have a few hot wheels! But you know Allyson and him always made you feel welcome always! You are a true role model of what love, compassion and kindness really is there was nothing fake about you! You will be missed my friend but your funny and adventurous stories will live forever!

*I send my love and prayers to all of the Cavender family

“ Stewie as I called him and he called me Pflugie was a great friend. We spent many late summer nights talking, laughing and listening to music at their lake house. Stewie and Allyson would always make you feel welcome and would put a big smile on your face. He will definitely be missed. Our thoughts and prayers go out to his family.

“ I never formally met Mr. Cavender but he and I certainly knew of each other. Then again, I guess "stranger" was a foreign word to this affable, gregarious soul. I'll always remember his - sometimes - inappropriate laughter at the Today Show while on the treadmill, chatting up people outside 7/11 in Horseshoe Bay in his infamous black Silverado, or - of course - talking Longhorn football. We'd cross paths (mostly on the way to exercise and he'd always keenly ask how I was). I'll remember all the trips to the dealership and the people - in their decency - always shot for "Strait Deals." Yet gimmicks aside, the team was always well-intended with Mr. Cavender insisting they "take care of him."

I was aware of his illness for some time, and certainly shocked to hear of his passing, but though we knew each other so little we knew so much it seems.

So I conjure D.H. Lawrence's infamous poem, "I never saw a wild thing sorry for itself. A small bird will drop frozen dead from a bough without ever having felt sorry for itself."

If we could all live our lives without self-pity and loathing, our capabilities are boundless regardless of the deck of cards life so often unscrupulously bequeaths.

Kind regards,

“ Stuart was a great Texan gentleman of the old school. His ever-ready grin, wicked sense of humor, and unfailingly positive outlook were an inspiration to those of us lucky enough to know him. He really did light up every room he entered, and as he faced adversity, he demonstrated amazing courage and optimism right until the very end. He took friendship seriously, and Cathy and I were privileged to be his friends for many, many years.

Stuart always did it "the cowboy way", and San Antonio and Texas have lost a shining star.

Our hearts go out to the family whom he loved so deeply, and we send our condolences and prayers to them, and the many, many others that will sorely miss him. Until, on some bright day, we see him again.

“ *As a family member to an employee (Kathy Dozier), I know my wife adored Stuart as a person and as her employer. He always knew where to find the "snacks or peanut M&Ms when his infamous sweet tooth awoke, that was at Kathy's desk. We both, as most everyone that met Stuart will, we will miss his smile, wit and kindness. On a personal note, to me, Stuart was my "movie star". Being a huge George Strait fan and being able to say I knew and could talk to and say hi to someone that knew and interacted with George, made me feel like a star struck kid when i was around him. Stuart being Stuart, you would never know it. I am and will always be grateful for being treated as everyone that knew him, like part of the Cavender Family. God bless all of the Cavender Family especially Allison and the children I also hope the kind words and memories everyone leaves here will help ease the pain during your difficult time of loss. “Stuart you were a Truck Guy. You loved being outdoors, loved your family, and Man you knew how to fix up a truck Just Right! Best truck I ever had was one of Your personal “Blackie” demos. Sarah and I bought at least seven other Chevy trucks and Suburbans from you and Tommy Pipes at the Boerne Store. Got a Red trailer for the band there, too, and more than a few used vehicles for the kids to learn to drive in.

But You were more than a my go-to transportation consultant. You were a good friend to me and a lot of others, the kind of friend who would lend a hand if I needed help with something, and a friend I could talk to. Over the years we talked about all kinds of things with our lives, our families, and our work. Everybody knows you could be a charmer, have a friendly conversation and shoot the breeze and joke around with anybody anywhere. But if I needed a friend to talk with about something serious, you could do that too.

We all complain about things sometimes, but Stuart you had a way of keeping your sense of mischief and your positive attitude even when times were tough.

When the economy went bad in 2008, I was genuinely concerned that GM might go out of business, and all my friends at the dealership might lose their jobs. You said something like “Don’t worry about us. We sell trucks, and people always need trucks.” You preferred to stay positive. I admire that, it’s a refreshing alternative to the media norm today. Stuart you just flat refused to be one of those gloom-and-doom blamer-whiner types that seem to be proliferating on every screen they can get their face on these days. Those kind of people usually aren’t smart enough to appreciate big beautiful trucks.

You did.

I want to Thank You, Stuart, and the Cavender Family, for making those commercials with George, and then posting them on YouTube. Please don’t ever take them down.

I just watched a few again today. I still get a smile on my face, a lump in my throat, and a pain in my heart when I see them.

The smile is from, well, you being you Stuart. The lump in my throat is because George Strait is So Cool. The pain in my heart used to be from embarrassment for you that those ads were so corny. Now it's because your immortal soul has left your wore-out body, and I miss you. We're still here, but we're all headed that way too. The only way I can deal with the mystery of your death and mine is with a lot of help from The Father, The Son, and The Holy Spirit. I'm praying to them now, for the Grace of Peace to come into the hearts of your loved ones, especially Allyson and the kids, and the extended Cavender family.

I imagine you in one more of those commercials. Your are saying "I Love Y'all. Don't worry about me, The Lord is calling me Home. I think He wants me to help Him put together a Heavenly PickUp Truck, to bring in more Souls. We got room for You. Can't wait to show you this new model, it's gonna be Brilliant Radiant White!"

“ I was fortunate enough to live in San Antonio for almost two years in the early Eighties. Although Stuart and I (and lots of other Cavenders and Barrons) were in the same fraternity at UT Austin, we were there at different times so I didn't really get to know Stuart and Allyson until I moved to San Antonio. I have never felt more welcomed anywhere in my life as I was in San Antonio by Stuart and his incredible family. I last saw Stuart at his twin brothers' (Bobby and Billy) 60th birthday party in SA and he was dancing the night away with beautiful Allyson. I know he is waiting in Heaven to finish that dance.

“ My father Don Hartman worked for the Cavender Auto Family for over 40 years and each of the "boys" held a special place in his and my mother Connie's hearts. Deepest sympathy to the entire Cavender family.

“ Stuart, like all the Cavender family, was very engaging and honest business men. He did make you feel like family at his dealership m I am sad to hear of his passing. Condolences to his family and all the Cavenders.

“ Stuart was definitely one of the "good guys" from the early days we met at UT when I was a pledge and he was a compassionate active through to his reputation in the automobile fraternity we shared. Gone too soon but never to be forgotten! Five Apples Stuart!

“ Stuart was a pillar of the Alamo Heights community and one of my favorite individuals growing up. He always had a smile on his face and was always so kind to me. Some of my fondest memories growing up were sitting on the Cavender’s patio drinking beers and cracking jokes. My thoughts and prayers are with Lee and the rest of the Cavender family.

RIP Stuart. Hope you are free of pain and resting easy!
