

Su Ying Joe

November 9, 1937 - December 13, 2024

Su Ying Joe passed away at the age of 87 in her home in San Antonio, Texas on Friday December 13th, 2024.

Born in Toishan, China on November 9, 1937, she was the third of six children.

Her family escaped to Hong Kong during WWII when she was a child, and she later immigrated to San Antonio as a newlywed and a young mother.

Su worked diligently in the family owned Lincoln Heights Grocery store on the West side of San Antonio. Her kindness and charity were stored in a Cigar box of unpaid grocery receipts-debts that customers could return and pay for when they were able, without interest or hidden fees, no matter how long it took.

In retirement Su loved to cook, sew, play Mahjong, and travel around the world with her sisters. She was a generous and loving woman to her many family members, even raising two sets of grandchildren.

Su was preceded in death by her parents Wa To Wong and Yuit Ha Yu Wong, her husband Shee Lim Joe and four siblings. She is survived by her sisters Grace Wong and Janet Yee and Judy Wong (SIL), her children Kai Nin

(Annette) Joe, Kai Soon Joe, Kai Ling (Janice) Joe, Sophia (Peter) Chin, and Kai John (Michi) Joe. She was a loving grandmother to 10 grandchildren: Deanna Joe and Lung Gong Joe; Kayla Joe, James Joe, and Kiley Joe; Amanda Chin and William Chin; Mason Joe, Anjoli Joe, and Grant Joe; and other loving family members.

She will be deeply missed and always remembered.
