♥ Grandma, we love you so, so very much. We have been blessed that God gave you to us to have in our lives, to give to each of us your unconditional love, your warmest of smiles, and your giving spirit for all of our years. On this special day, we feel at peace knowing that you are in Heaven with God, your mother, your father, your brothers and sisters, your loved ones, not so very long ago your son-in-law and our uncle Roy and our uncle Tony, and especially your beloved son Alberto, our Dad who very much loved you every day, who has always been by your side, loving you in his heart, thoughts, and prayers. We feel love in our hearts knowing you are together again, holding each other very tight, strong, healthy, happy, and forever looking over us all as our guardian angels in Heaven. We are eternally grateful for your unconditional love towards our entire family, your strength, your warm smile, your giving spirit, and your strong faith in God. We will pray every day and night for our family, for our grandpa Joe who loves you so, so very much as you loved each other every day, for your children ... our aunts and uncles, for our generations of cousins, and your loved ones. You gave our family your unconditional love, your warm smile, your giving spirit, your kindness, and your prayers to your beloved son and our strong and loving dad Alberto, to your daughter-in-law and our loving mother Sylvia whom you treated as your own daughter, to your grandchildren me, Jennifer, and Roger, to Roger's beloved Ashley, and to your great-grandchildren Serena, Jaden, RJ, and Kendall. We all so very much love you and will always have you in our hearts, thoughts, and prayers every day and night. The lessons you taught our Dad and to us will be shared for generations to come... to be unconditionally loving to your family, to be kind and never negative towards others, to be strong and independent, to value education and learning, to try new things yet be cautious when it's absolutely necessary, to offer help and speak up for others who cannot, to always love and respect ourselves when others do not, to love and laugh, to travel, and to look to God through all the good times and through the most challenging of times and uncertainty. To this day, it is miraculous that the lifelong friendships I made during my university years belonged with families who knew of you and our Dad when you were very young. Throughout our years, they have spoken only of your warmth and kindness, Dad's hilarious sense of humor, and the good memories you both gave. We are eternally grateful to have been blessed having you, Dad, and our loved ones in our lives. We will pray for our family and for our grandpa Joe every day and night. You, Dad, and our loved ones will always be in our hearts, thoughts, memories, and prayers. We love you all so very, very much.

♥ Love you always,
