“ I met Susie back in th 2005. She and my mom were on a team going to little state. She was so much fun to be around. Always smiling and always encouraging. She started coming to my tennis clinic and then took private lessons. She always made me laugh. She was always smiling and asked good questions on how to improve her game. She would give a little extra to help whatever pup I was try to save or rescue I was trying to help. She was very kind and had such a good heart. We had just texted each other Christmas eve. My heart is so sad. My thoughts and prayers are with her husband . I know she loved Jesus and is ensuring that everything is running smoothly in heaven. I will miss her greatly but I am so grateful and blessed to have known her and to have called her my friend.

“ Susie was my tennis partner. She was a good friend and such a pleasure to play with. She was always so happy, cheerful and always asking “Is there anything else I can do better” the last time we played together we won our game. Susie was so excited we had won. I asked her if she was feeling OK and she said yeah that she was feeling great except she was just a little bit tired. The last time I text her was when she said that she had a sore throat and cannot practice with us the morning of the 16th. I text her back and said fix you a little toddy with some whiskey,lemon and honey and you’ll feel better. I really wished I had followed up with her. I’m so sorry for your loss Susie was a charming and personable person and will truly be missed. 🙏

I also knew Suzie from tennis. I met her at our Wednesday clinic. She had energy and spunk. She would give a pat on the back or a big high 5. She was always encouraging to me. She will definitely be missed on the court. ❤️🍋 I am so sorry for your loss.
