“ Susie, or Momo, as I was fortunate enough to know her as, was such a benevolent soul, kind, caring, sweet and the most wonderful person you could ever meet. I am blessed to have had her in my life for 22 years, I will never know another like her. She gave the most heartfelt hugs and had the biggest smile each time I saw her. I will miss all the lovely times we spent together and the way you always called me "My Michelle". I love you Momo.

“ Susie was my mother's best friend and protector at Floresville High School. They remained friends, and exchanged letters their whole lives. Susie and Tando were my kind and always generous godparents. From their example, I learned kindness, compassion, patience, and the ability to understand what others need and try to provide it. They always encouraged my love of classical music and reading, and they always encouraged my education. Susie was always able to cheer my mother in her illness, and she could always make her laugh. Her memory will always be a blessing and a light in our lives.

Enrique Gutierrez.

It's hard to accept that we don't see it.

Although we carry it in our Thoughts.

Always with a smile,

I treat her kindly,

Always with a gesture of Love.

With infinite attention to all the people who knew her,

On each visit,

For everyone she had her Smile, a Kiss and a Warm Hug.

She remembered a lot of my Mother when she was Talking to Momo.

That Kindness and That Affection

in her Words, her Expressions and her unmatched actions.

We will carry you in Our Heart.

The Best Word to Remember It is LOVE.

THANK YOU MOMO.
